

- passed by the court, or entered on claims docket, or sued upon.
117. Meeting of creditors for distribution.
118. Delivery or distribution of surplus
- Distribution.
- 119-131. Order of distribution amongst next of kin.
132. Representative of person dying before distribution to receive his share.
133. Posthumous children, share of.
134. Illegitimate children may take from their mother or inherit from each other.
135. Where no kin within fifth degree, school commissioners to be entitled.
136. School commissioners to refund should legal representative appear.
137. Distribution of specific articles, how made
138. Court may appoint two disinterested persons to make; sale of articles and distribution of proceeds.
139. Conveyance by administrator of chattels real to distributees.
140. Special advance to person entitled in straitened circumstances, in anticipation of distribution.
141. Delivery under like circumstances to specific legatees.
142. Female entitled to receive her share at eighteen years of age.
143. Meeting of persons entitled for purpose of distribution.
- Guardian and Ward.
144. Orphans' court to appoint guardian when infant becomes entitled by descent, inheritance, devise or bequest to any property.
145. When infant acquires property by purchase or gift.
146. Although infant may have parents living, notice to parents
147. Infant may be brought before the court
148. Appointment of a guardian by mother by last will to be valid
149. In case of death or renunciation by guardian of female infant, court may appoint guardian.
150. Guardianship to extend to all the property within the State
151. Administrator to discharge duties of guardian to infant, when.
152. But not after the close of his administration or for more than three years from the granting of his letters.
153. Guardian to settle his account under sections 151 and 152; how
154. Bond of guardian.
155. Condition of the bond.
156. One guardian for several infants.
157. Court may call for new security from.
158. Court may order property to be delivered to.
159. Valuation of real estate of ward; how to be made.
160. Waste not to be committed.
161. Real estate of ward, how to be cultivated.
162. Rents of real estate of infant dying, how to be distributed.
163. Administrator of guardian may receive such rents
164. Guardian to account for increase of ward's property; liable for decrease when.
165. To settle account annually.
166. Court may order sale of specific articles.
167. Sale and investment of leasehold estate of ward.
168. Investment of ward's money.
169. Location and sale of land warrants of ward
170. Guardians of females between eighteen and twenty-one may