

make or cause to be made a true and perfect inventory or inventories of such said goods, chattels, personal estate and debts as shall come to his possession or knowledge, and the same shall in due time return to the register of wills of —— county, and shall also deliver to the person or persons who shall be authorized by the orphans' court of said county to receive them, such of the said goods, chattels, personal estate and debts, as shall come to his possession, (except such as shall be allowed for by the said court,) then the above obligation is to be void, or it is otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law."

P. G. L., (1860,) art 93, sec 63 1798, ch. 101, sub-ch. 3, sec. 17.

63. Every collector on the grant of letters shall take the following oath: "I, ——, do swear that I will well and honestly discharge the office of collector of the goods, chattels, personal estate and debts of ——, deceased, according to the tenor of the letters granted to me by the orphans' court of —— county, and agreeably to the directions of law, to the best of my knowledge, so help me God."

Ibid. sec. 64. 1798, ch 101, sub-ch. 3, sec. 18.

64. A collector shall collect the goods, chattels and personal estate, and debts of the deceased, and cause the same to be appraised, and return an inventory thereof in the manner prescribed for an administrator, and secure the same at such reasonable expense as the court shall allow; and may, under the authority of the court, sell perishable articles; and he may bring suits for debts or other property, as an administrator may do, and shall account for the money or property recovered.

Ibid. sec. 65. 1798, ch. 101, sub-ch. 3, sec. 18.

65. The orphans' court may allow a collector a commission on the property and debts actually collected and afterwards delivered to the executor or administrator, not exceeding three per cent., or on the whole inventory not exceeding two per cent.

Williams v. Est. of Bazley, 47 Md 555.

Ibid. sec. 66. 1798, ch. 101, sub-ch. 3, sec. 20.

66. On granting of letters testamentary or of administration, the powers of any such collector shall cease, and it shall be his
