P. G. L., (1860,) art. 93, sec. 115. 1854, ch. 86, sec. 2.

114. The claims thus entered shall not afford any evidence as to the justness or correctness of any debt therein entered, whenever the same shall be controverted by any administrator in any suit instituted for the recovery of such debt; nor shall the same be construed to take any debt out of the operation of a plea of limitations.

115. In paying the debts of a decedent, an administrator shall observe the following rules: All taxes due and in arrear from the decedent shall be preferred to the exclusion of all other debts, and claims for rent in arrear against deceased persons, for which a distress might be levied by law, shall next have preference. Judgments and decrees shall next be wholly discharged. After such claims for taxes and rent, and judgments and decrees, shall be satisfied, all other just claims shall be on equal footing without priority or preference. If there be not sufficient to discharge all such judgments and decrees, a proportionate dividend shall be made between the judgment and decree creditors.
