

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 93, sec. 180. 1798, ch. 101, sub-ch. 12, sec. 14.

180. On a guardian's failing to account, as herein directed, his bond shall be liable to be put in suit, and he shall also be liable to attachment and fine as aforesaid; but he shall not be liable to any fine in a court of law.

Ibid. sec. 181. 1831, ch. 315, sec. 15.

181. No register of wills shall, ex officio, issue any citation to any guardian for the rendering of an account where the annual income or profits of the estate of the ward shall not exceed fifty dollars.

Ibid. sec. 182. 1827, ch. 210.

182. In case of the death of any guardian before an account of his guardianship shall have been settled with the orphans' court, it shall be the duty of his administrator to render such account, showing thereby the amount with which such guardian may be properly chargeable, and the disbursements made by the deceased guardian; and the account so rendered shall be examined by the court, and if found to be correct shall be admitted to record in the same manner that other guardian accounts are examined and recorded.

Ibid. sec. 183. 1829, ch. 216, sec. 2.

183. In case of the death of any female guardian before a final account of her guardianship shall have been settled with the orphans' court, and who shall have a husband living at the time of her decease, it shall be the duty of such husband to render an account, showing thereby the amount of money and property received, and the payments and disbursements made by such guardian, or that may have been received and paid by the husband, and not accounted for with the court; and the account so rendered shall be examined by the orphans' court, and if found to be correct shall be admitted to record in the same manner and shall be subject to the same rules and regulations as other guardian accounts.

Ibid. sec. 184. 1829, ch. 216, sec. 2.

184. If the husband shall neglect or refuse to render such account, the orphans' court of the county where the guardian was
