

guardian to give security for double the damages that shall be assessed by such jury, and in case of refusal, to commit such guardian to prison, there to remain until he shall comply with their order therein.

Guardians and Infants not Residing in this State.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 93, sec. 195. 1853, ch. 422, sec. 1.

195. Where any infant not residing in this State is entitled to any property or estate, real, personal or mixed, or to any debts or choses in action in this State, or due by or recoverable from any person or persons, corporation or corporations in this State, or from any estate upon which letters testamentary or of administration have been granted in this State, having no guardian appointed in this State, but having a guardian appointed in the State, district or territory in which the infant resides, duly qualified according to the laws thereof, and who shall there have given good and sufficient security for the faithful performance of his trust as such, or in words to that effect, then, and in such case the orphans' court of the county or city in this State in which such property, or any part thereof, of such infant may be situated, or where such debts or choses in action, or any part thereof may be due or recoverable, either wholly or in part, shall pass an order authorizing and empowering such non-resident guardian to take into his possession such property wherever situated in this State, and to sue for and recover such debts or choses in action, from all persons or corporations in this State, and from all estates upon which letters testamentary or of administration shall have been granted, and to act in all respects as if such guardian had been duly appointed by some one of the orphans' courts in this State; provided, however, that before any such order shall be passed, such guardian shall first file a petition, setting forth the fact that such non-resident infant is or claims to be entitled to such property, debts or choses in action, as herein-before mentioned, and shall also give bond, with security to be approved by the said orphans' court, in the same manner as if such infant resided in this State.
