

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 93, sec. 229. 1795, ch. 55. 1831, ch. 315, sec. 14.

229. A recess of the orphans' court shall be deemed and taken to be not only such days as they may not hold a court, but also such parts or portions of a day as they may not be in actual session; if the orphans' court shall not meet on a day fixed for its meeting, the register shall adjourn the court from day to day until a meeting shall be had according to law.

Ibid. sec. 230. 1798, ch. 101, sub-ch. 15, sec. 1.

230. The court shall have full power to take probate of wills, grant letters testamentary and of administration, direct the conduct and settling the accounts of executors and administrators, superintend the distribution of the estates of intestates, secure the rights of orphans and legatees, and to administer justice in all matters relative to the affairs of deceased persons.
