

children, of the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, to be paid to her in money or in articles of household and kitchen furniture at their appraised value, as she may elect.

Crow v. Hubbard, 62 Md. 560.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 93, sec. 293 1849, ch. 543, sec. 2. 1862, ch. 101.
1884, ch. 107.

299. If the decedent leave a widow and no infant child or children surviving him, the widow shall be in like manner entitled to an allowance of seventy-five dollars in money or its equivalent in household and kitchen furniture, as provided for in the foregoing section.

Ibid. sec. 293. 1849, ch. 543, sec. 3.

300. The administrator of the decedent shall make return in writing, of the articles, and the amount so taken by the widow, together with her receipt for the same, to the orphans' court granting administration; upon which return so being made, the court shall allow him a credit for the same upon his administration account.

Ibid. sec. 294. 1830, ch. 99, sec. 1.

301. The orphans' courts may adjudge, determine and apportion, in their discretion, what part of the expenses shall be borne or paid by the widow which may accrue in making the necessary repairs or improvements on the real estate in which, at the time such repairs are so made and done, she may be entitled to a right of dower.

Ibid. sec. 295. 1830, ch. 99, sec. 2.

302. Whenever expenses are or shall be incurred in effecting repairs or improvements on any real estate in which a widow shall hold a right of dower, an account shall be rendered to the orphans' court of the county by the party having said repairs so done, setting forth in what way or manner such expenses have accrued, showing the amount of expenditures in repairs as aforesaid; and on such account being rendered to the orphans' court, it shall be their duty to order such portion of said expenses to be paid by the widow or person having control over said right of dower to the person claiming, and in all cases shall the right of
