1886, ch. 10.

38. No person shall be entitled to make application for a divorce, where the causes for divorce occurred out of this State, unless the party plaintiff or defendant shall have resided within this State for two years next preceding such application.

Ibid sec. 28. 1842, ch 198, sec 1.

39. When a bill prays for a divorce a vinculo matrimonii, the fact that the parties have been divorced a mensa et thoro shall not be taken to interfere with the jurisdiction of the court over the subject.

Ibid. sec. 29. 1842, ch 198, sec. 2.

40. The admission of a respondent, of the facts charged in a bill for a divorce, who consents to the application, shall not be taken of itself as conclusive proof of the facts charged, as the ground of the application.

Dower.

P. G L., (1860,) art. 16, sec. 30. 1840, ch. 98.

41. The several courts of equity shall have full concurrent jurisdiction with the courts of law in all claims for dower, and shall have power to try all questions of law which may arise in such cases, and give as full relief in any case as the plaintiff could have obtained heretofore, in either a court of equity or a court of law, or in both courts.
