

INDEX.

1563

CORPORATIONS— Continued.	ART.	SEC.	PAGE
Case to be heard ex parte , if defendant fails to answer.	23	259	385
Court may dismiss petition, even though case be made out by State, if of opinion that public interests do not require forfeiture.....	23	260	385
Or it may pass preliminary order nisi on corporation to remedy the grievance complained of....	23	260	386
Petition to be filed in court where certificate of incorporation is recorded.....	23	261	386
Or, in cases of company not so incorporated, in circuit court for county where its principal office is located.....	23	261	386
In superior court, if in Baltimore city...	23	261	386
Either party may appeal to court of appeals.....	23	262	386
Governor may direct attorney general or State's attorney to file bill against corporation to restrain exercise of unauthorized corporate powers.....	23	263	387
DISSOLUTION OF CORPORATIONS.
When judicially determined to be insolvent, they may be adjudged to be dissolved after hearing—attorney general, State's attorney, or any stockholder may file bill	23	264	388
This provision not to apply to railroad companies	23	264	388
Meeting of stockholders to order dissolution... ..	23	265	388
If ordered by a majority, bill may be filed.....	23	265	388
What bill must allege.....	23	266	388
Court to pass order requiring all persons interested to show cause against dissolution	23	267	389
Order to be published.....	23	267	389
Answers may be filed and evidence taken.	23	267	389
Decree may be entered dissolving the corporation and appointing receiver.....	23	268	389
Receivers to be vested with title to property of corporations, as trustees for creditors and stockholders.....	23	269	389
Shall wind up its affairs.....	23	269	389