

decrees for specific performance of a contract against an infant, such infant may, at any time within six months after he arrives at full age, have review of such decree; and if such infant dies under age, his heir or proper representative may have a review of such decree either within six months after the death of such infant, or within six months after such heir or representative attains full age.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 16, sec. 73. 1778, ch. 22, sec. 2. 1818, ch. 193, sec. 8.
1819, ch. 183.

86. The court may, with the assent of the guardian of an infant, or the trustee or committee of a person non compos mentis, and the consent of the other persons of full age and sound mind, who may be interested, decree the sale of the real estate of such infant or person non compos mentis, to save the personal.

Ibid. sec. 74. 1831, ch. 262, secs. 1-2.

87. In any case where the surety of a sheriff, deputy sheriff or collector of taxes shall apply to the court, by bill or petition, the court, on being satisfied that such surety has suffered, or is likely to suffer loss or damage by reason of his suretyship, may appoint a trustee to complete his collections for the benefit of those concerned, and the court shall compel such sheriff, deputy sheriff or collector, or his representatives, to answer such bill or petition under oath, and disclose the state of his collections.

Ibid. sec 75. 1834, ch. 76, sec. 1-

88. If on the filing of a bill or petition under the preceding section, or at any other period in the cause, it shall be made appear to the court, by affidavit, that an injunction is necessary to the security of the plaintiff, the court may issue such injunction, and may appoint a receiver to take charge of the collections of the defendant, and to perform the duty of the trustee mentioned in the preceding section, till the further order of the court; and the court may confer on him such powers, and pass such orders, as may be necessary to effect the objects of such injunction and receivership.

Ibid. sec 76. 1831, ch. 262, sec. 3. 1834, ch. 76, sec. 1.

89. The court may order the delivery to the trustee or receiver mentioned in the two preceding sections, by any person,
