

EQUITY—Continued	ART	SEC.	PAGE
Terms to be January, March, May, July, September and November... .	16	117	171
Clerks to receive and file all papers and keep full dockets, showing condition of each case	16	118	171
Original proceedings to be commenced by bill or case stated	16	119	172
Bill to embrace petition or information.	16	119	172
No order or process to be made or issued until bill and exhibits are filed . . .	16	120	172
Process to be returnable, when	16	121	172
Clerk to issue process as matter of course	16	122	172
Separate summons may be issued when directed, except in case of husband and wife	16	122	172
How process shall be served	16	123	172
How, in cases of infant and non compos ..	16	123	172
In case of infant or non sane defendant, upon return of process, guardian ad litem to be appointed	16	124	173
Infants may sue by guardian or next friend	16	125	173
Married woman by next friend	16	125	173
Non compos by committee	16	125	173
Written authority to solicitor from next friend to be filed	16	125	173
Appearance to be entered within fifteen days after return day	16	126	173
Twenty days thereafter defendants to answer; clerk to note on docket appearance.	16	126	173
Court may extend time for answer . . .	16	126	173
In default of answer, plaintiff may obtain decree pro confesso	16	127	174
Case may then be proceeded with ex parte	16	127	174
Court may require proof to be taken . . .	16	127	174
Final decree may be entered thirty days after decree pro confesso	16	127	174
When court, after decree pro confesso on a bill for discovery, may proceed to final decree	16	128	174
Where defendant after appearance leaves State without answering, or where non-resident appears but does not answer, court may pass decree pro confesso after failure to obey special order to answer.	16	129	175