

EQUITY—Continued.	ART.	SEC	PAGE
Upon failure to comply with such rule, bill to be dismissed.....	16	148	181
Form of general replication	16	148	181
No special replication to be filed... ..	16	149	182
Plaintiff, after answer, may obtain leave to amend bill.	16	149	182
Plaintiff not amending after leave, held to abandon proposed amendment	16	150	182
Defendant may answer anew amended bill, when.....	16	150	182
Proceedings where bill is amended and defendant fails to answer.....	16	150	182
Fine for contempt.....	16	151	182
Party to stand committed until order obeyed and fine paid.....	16	151	182
Rule security for costs may be laid upon non-resident plaintiff... ..	16	152	183
Bond may be given to State	16	153	183
Payment of fees of examiners, commis- sioners, witnesses, masters, auditors and clerks to examiners and commissioners, how compelled	16	154	183
When opinions must be filed.	16	155	183
Heirs of mortgagee not necessary parties to bill to foreclose.....	16	156	184
Upon bill of review to set aside decree where infant or non compos was inter- ested, what defects may be supplied... ..	16	157	184
Costs on exceptions to answers, how awarded.....	16	158	184
Plaintiff may proceed against one or more of joint and several debtors.	16	159	184
Defendant may file cross bill against par- ties liable jointly with him.... .	16	159	184
In what cases trustees shall represent parties beneficially interested.....	16	160	185
Parties beneficially interested may come in and be made parties.....	16	160	185
Not necessary to dismiss whole bill be- cause of misjoinder of parties or sub- ject-matter.....	16	161	185
Court may dismiss bill in part, to avoid multifariousness.....	16	161	185
Court may decree as between co-defend- ants, when.....	16	161	185
Objection at hearing, that bill is defec- tive for want of parties, how dealt with.	16	162	186