

EQUITY—Continued.	ART.	SEC.	PAGE
Plaintiff may elect to take any of the proceedings authorized by law to compel appearance or answer.....	16	175	190
Court may issue any process.....	16	176	191
May issue commissions to take testimony.	16	176	191
Court may issue mandatory injunction or other injunction.....	16	177	191
Discharge or dissolution of such injunction.....	16	178	191
Appeal therefrom	16	178	191
Court may pass order as to possession pendente lite of property	16	179	191
Court may pass order charging income, interest or dividends on any property..	16	180	191
Such orders to bind persons from the time of notice thereof.....	16	181	192
No decree pro confesso to be passed against infant or non compos ...	16	182	192
Court may make order for decision of question of law before testimony taken or question of fact decided	16	183	192
Special case stated to be docketed and treated as ordinary case..	16	184	193
To be divided into paragraphs..	16	185	193
Court may decree as in other cases	16	185	193
Appeal allowed..	16	185	193
Married women may join in such special cases stated...	16	186	193
Also infants and lunatics.	16	186	193
Parties to appear in person or by solicitor.	16	186	193
Case to be dealt with as if plaintiff had filed bill against defendants ...	16	186	193
WITNESSES AND TESTIMONY
Examiners, their authority and compensation	16	216	204
To certify in their returns the time employed.....	16	216	204
To report to court persons refusing to appear as witnesses, or misbehaving	16	216	240
Punishment of such offenders	16	216	204
Examiners, upon request of parties, to fix day for taking testimony...	16	217	205
To issue subpoenas for witnesses . . .	16	217	205
Attendance may be enforced by attachment.....	16	217	205
Examination of witnesses, how conducted before examiners.	16	218	205