

GUARDIAN AND WARD— Continued.	ART	SEC.	PAGE
Register not to cite guardian ex officio where income of estate is under fifty dollars . . . . .	93	181	1373
Upon death of guardian before account settled, his administrator to render account . . . . .	93	182	1373
Husband of guardian dying, to render account for her . . . . .	93	183	1373
Husband may be attached for failure to render such account . . . . .	93	184	1373
Natural and testamentary guardians to account as well as those appointed by the court . . . . .	93	185	1374
Court may revoke appointment, and appoint new guardian . . . . .	93	186	1374
Guardian whose appointment is revoked, to account for and deliver up ward's property to new guardian . . . . .	93	187, 189	1374-1375
How such account and delivery may be compelled. . . . .	93	187, 189 242	1374 1303
Revocation of guardianship, upon application of guardian himself, not to relieve guardian from his obligations until new guardian is appointed . . . . .	93	188	1374
Payment to guardian, where appointment defective, to be valid . . . . .	93	190	1375
Guardian irregularly appointed to be liable for money or property received by him . . . . .	93	191	1375
Guardian to render final account and surrender estate upon arrival of male ward at age of twenty-one years . . . . .	93	192	1375
Upon arrival of female ward at age of eighteen years, or marriage . . . . .	93	192	1375
Persons committing trespass and waste on ward's property to pay treble damages . . . . .	93	193	1376
Proceedings against guardian for waste committed by him . . . . .	93	194	1376
Non-resident guardian entitled to property of non-resident infant situated in this State . . . . .	93	195	1377
Shall file petition for order authorizing him to take such property . . . . .	93	195	1377
Shall also give bond like resident guardians . . . . .	93	195	1377
May obtain property from trustee, administrator or guardian, belonging to such non-resident infant . . . . .	93	196	1378