

INHERITANCE— Continued.	ART	SEC	PAGE
Person electing to take estate shall give bonds to other parties.....	46	-51	820
SALES BY COMMISSIONERS.
If all parties refuse to elect, land shall be sold by commissioners.....	46	52	820
Terms of sale to be prescribed by court.	46	52	820
Ratification by court necessary....	46	52	820
Not to be sold, if parties are all minors, until eldest arrives at age	46	53	820
Profits to be equally divided in the meantime	46	53	820
If sold on credit, bonds for deferred payments to be given by purchaser to several heirs	46	54	820
Such bonds to be a lien on land until paid.	46	54	820
Heir electing to take or purchaser, may be permitted to give one bond to State for the whole purchase money.....	46	55	821
Such bond to be a lien until paid.....	46	55	821
Commissioners may re-sell at risk and expense of former purchaser, who fails to comply with terms of sale	46	56	821
Curtesy and life estate of surviving husband.....	46	57	822
Sale may be made free of such curtesy and life estate.....	46	58	822
Award to surviving husband in lieu of curtesy or life estate.....	46	58	822
Allowance to surviving husband in lieu of his curtesy or life estate, where estate cannot be divided.....	46	59	823
Where such curtesy or life estate is acquired after return, but before sale, return shall be altered accordingly....	46	60	823
In case of life tenant under deed or devise, same proceedings to be had.....	46	61	823
Widow's dower to be laid off.....	46	62	824
Return to be confirmed or rejected.....	46	62	824
Where widow consents to sale, proper allowance shall be made to her out of proceeds.....	46	63	824
Compensation to commissioners, how to be paid	46	64	824
Commissioners to make deed to party electing to take, upon payment of valuation	46	65	825
Commissioners to make deed to purchaser upon full payment of price.....	46	66	825