

MARRIED WOMEN— Continued	ART	SEC.	PAGE
When transfer of property to wife from husband invalid.....	45	1	799
To hold and devise property as a feme sole	45	2	800
May convey by joint deed with husband.	45	2	800
When he has been found lunatic, she may convey separately without her husband	45	2	800
Dying intestate, leaving children, how property to go	45	2	800
If no children	45	2	800
May be sued jointly on note, bond or contract executed jointly with her husband	45	2	800
May employ counsel and defend suit separately or jointly with her husband	45	2	800
Judgment a lien on her property.....	45	2	800
Not necessary to have a trustee	45	3	801
May appoint trustee by deed or apply to court of equity to appoint.	45	3	801
In the appointment, uses for which property held to be declared.	45	3	801
When she may sue by next friend	45	4	802
When entitled to dower in equitable estate	45	5	802
When husband entitled to curtesy in equitable estate	45	6	802
Powers and liability in regard to earnings.	45	7	802-803
Insurance upon life of husband for benefit of wife, free from husband's debts	45	8	803
Insurance for benefit of wife, child or dependent relative, free from claims of creditors.	45	9	803
Death of wife before husband, to whom insurance may be made payable	45	10	804
Insurance of property of married woman.	23	120	322
Her receipt for money deposited by her to be valid	45	11	804
How married woman may convey	45	12	804
How to execute and acknowledge deeds.	45	12	804
How to relinquish dower.	45	12	804
Leases to married women; distress, re-entry	45	14	805
When empowered to covenant.	45	15	805
Liability of, on covenants where lease or sub-lease becomes vested in	45	16	806