

INDEX.

1773

PARTNERSHIPS—LIMITED—Continued.	ART.	SEC.	PAGE
Certificate of such partnership, what to contain	73	3	1072
How to be acknowledged, certified, and where to be recorded	73	4	1073
Affidavit of general partner to be also made and filed with certificate . . .	73	5	1073
Partnership not to be deemed formed until certificate is made, acknowledged, filed and recorded, and affidavit also filed	73	6	1073
Terms of partnership to be published for six weeks	73	7	1074
Affidavits of editors of newspapers as to publication of such notice to be filed with clerk, and to be evidence . . .	73	8	1074
Renewals to be certified, recorded and published like original formation . . .	73	9	1074
Alteration in partnership to be deemed a dissolution	73	10	1075
Partnership thereafter to be deemed general	73	10	1075
In what name business may be conducted	73	11	1075
How to be sued	73	11	1075
What shall make special partner liable as general partner	73	12	1075
Word "limited" may be used as part of firm name.	73	12	1075.
Special partner to be designated as "special partner," what part he may take in business without thereby being deemed general partner	73	12	1075
Capital of special partner shall not be withdrawn by him	73	13	1076
He may receive interest on his capital.	73	13	1076
If capital be reduced by payment of interest or profits, it must be restored	73	14	1076
Transfers of copartnership property, when firm or any member is insolvent, with intent to give preferences, to be void	73	15	1076
Transfers of property of general or special partners, with like intent, to be void	73	16	1076
Special partner making such preferences, or concurring in them, to be liable as general partner	73	17	1077
Special partner not to claim as creditor until other creditors are fully paid	73	18	1077