

1874, ch. 483, sec. 110.

208. Upon the trustee, so appointed by the court or judge, giving bond as before directed, the whole trust estate shall vest in him, subject to the provisions of the trust deed or other instrument creating the trust, and the same power may be exercised by the court or judge from time to time until a trustee shall be appointed and give bond.

Ibid. sec. 111. 1884, ch. 26.

209. It shall be the duty of the trustee within six months from the period of his giving bond, to make report upon oath to the circuit court for the county or circuit court of Baltimore city, of the whole amount of the trust estate and the disposition made of the same; and any sale of leasehold or fee simple property made by such trustee, before taking effect, shall be reported to and ratified by said court.

Ibid. sec. 112.

210. If any trustee shall fail to make report to the court, as required by the preceding section, the clerk shall issue a summons commanding him to appear before court at the next ensuing term to make such report, and if the summons is returned served, and the trustee shall fail to appear and report, an attachment shall issue to compel an appearance upon which similar proceedings shall be had as in other cases.

1870, ch. 247. 1878, ch. 107.

211. In any case in which a trustee shall have been, or may hereafter be appointed by deed or by will, either as sole trustee or as a trustee to act in conjunction with another person or other persons to manage, lease or sell any real or personal estate, or shall have been or shall hereafter be appointed such trustee by any court of this State exercising equity jurisdiction, and shall be desirous to retire from and resign such trust after he or she shall have accepted the same, such trustee may exhibit a petition ex parte in the court exercising equity jurisdiction in the city or county where said real or personal estate or said leasehold property may be situated, accompanied by a full and particular account, under oath, of his or her receipts and disbursements, if
