1868, ch. 471, sec. 66.

71. When any person or persons owning five per cent. of the capital stock of any corporation formed under the provisions of this article shall present to the treasurer or chief finance officer thereof, a written request for a statement of the affairs of said corporation, it shall be the duty of such treasurer or chief finance officer to make a statement of the affairs of said corporation under oath, embracing a particular account of all its assets and liabilities in minute detail, and to deliver such statement to the person or persons who presented the said written request to the said treasurer or chief finance officer within twenty days after such presentation, and keep on file in his office for six months thereafter a copy of such statement, which shall, at all times during business hours, be exhibited to any stockholder of said company demanding an examination thereof; if such treasurer or chief finance officer, as the case may be, shall neglect or refuse to make or deliver such statement as aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay to the person presenting said written request the sum of fifty dollars, and the further sum of twenty-five dollars for every twenty-four hours thereafter until such statement shall be furnished, to be sued for and recovered in any court having jurisdiction over the person of such defaulting officers and cognizance of said suit.

Ibid. sec. 67.

72. It shall be the duty of every corporation incorporated under this article to cause a book to be kept by the treasurer or secretary thereof, containing the names of all persons alphabetically arranged, who are or shall have been, within three years, stockholders of said corporation, and showing their places of residence, the number of shares held by them respectively, and the time when they respectively became the owners of such
