

the result of such examination to the judge appointing them, who shall, if in his judgment the charges of insolvency, fraud, neglect or abuse, as charged by the insurance commissioner, are sustained by the said report, at once issue an injunction suspending the business of said company; and the insurance commissioner shall institute, or cause to be instituted, the necessary proceedings under the laws of this State, to close the affairs of any insurance company of this State which shall appear to him, upon examination, to be insolvent, or to be fraudulently conducted; and the insurance commissioner is a necessary party to any proceedings instituted for the purpose of closing up the affairs of any insurance company when the same shall not be in the name of the State of Maryland. It shall be the duty of the insurance commissioner to report in detail to the attorney general any violation of the laws relative to insurance companies, their officers or agents, or the business of insurance; and he shall have power to institute suits and prosecutions, either by the attorney general, or such other attorney as the attorney general may select, for any violation of the provisions of this article.

Tenth. The insurance commissioner shall preserve in permanent form a full record of his proceedings, and a concise statement of the condition of each company visited or examined, and report annually to the governor, on or before the first day of June, his official acts; and shall, on the first day of December, annually, report to the comptroller the fees received, and expenses of his department for the year then to end, and pay into the treasury all excess of receipts over disbursements; and in his report to the governor, he shall report the condition of the companies doing business in this State, and such other information as will exhibit the affairs of his department; a copy of which said report to the governor he shall forward to the insurance commissioner or other similar officer of every other State of the United States, and to each company doing business in this State; and, on request, he shall communicate to the insurance commissioner, or other proper officer, of any other State, any facts which by law it is his duty to ascertain respecting companies of this State doing business within such other State; and at the request of any person, and on payment of the proper fee as hereinafter provided, he shall give certified copies of any record or paper in his office, when he