

tion incorporated in this State, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be subject to the penalty as in section 138.

1888, ch. 424.

132. No corporation of this State shall assume the name of any such foreign or home corporation as described in section 127, nor one so closely resembling it as to mislead the public as to its identity.

Ibid.

133. The insurance commissioner of this State may examine all such corporations as described in section 127, in order to verify the correctness of the annual report required by law to be made to him.

Ibid.

134. Any organization, as described in section 127, doing business upon the industrial or weekly payment plan, whether of this or other States or districts, shall require from each of its agents or collectors in this State a good and sufficient bond for not less than fifty dollars, and for failure to do so shall be liable to the penalty prescribed in section 138, and for all damage the public may have sustained by such negligence; provided, that the informant shall receive one-half of the fine imposed in any conviction under this section.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 56, sec. 33. 1858, ch. 432, sec. 3. 1872, ch. 888. 1874, ch. 400. 1876, ch. 248. 1878, ch. 106.

135. Every insurance company, including individuals, partnerships, joint stock associations and corporations, conducting any branch of insurance business in this State, must transmit to the insurance commissioner a statement of its condition and business for the year ending on the preceding thirty-first day of December, which statement shall be rendered on the first day of January following, or within sixty days thereafter, (except that foreign companies may transmit their statement of business, other than that done in the United States, at any time prior to the following first of July,) which statements must be in the form and state the particulars required by the blanks prescribed by the insurance commissioner; and he may require at any time statements from any company doing business within this State, or