

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 28, sec. 91. 1858, ch. 271, sec. 12.

62. Every ditch so made shall always remain open for the benefit of such persons, their heirs and assigns, as the commissioners, in their report, shall return as being benefited thereby, and chargeable with the expense of making the same; but if any ditch laid out as aforesaid shall not be begun within two years from the confirmation of the return, or being begun, shall not be completed within seven years thereafter, the said order and return shall become void and be of no effect, and the power and authority under it shall cease.

Ibid. sec. 92. 1858, ch. 271, sec. 13.

63. If any person shall stop up any ditch made in pursuance hereof, except by such fixtures under fences as may be necessary to prevent stock from trespassing through said ditch, and shall be lawfully convicted thereof before a justice of the peace of the county, he shall forfeit and pay for every such offence a sum not less than two nor more than twenty dollars—to be recovered by the managers for the time being, and applied to the use of said ditch.

Ibid. sec. 93. 1858, ch. 271, sec. 14. 1888, ch. 389.

64. The commissioners appointed as hereinbefore directed, shall each receive for every day's attendance in the discharge of their duties, the sum of two dollars.

Ibid. sec. 94. 1858, ch. 271, sec. 14. 1888, ch. 389.

65. The managers appointed as aforesaid shall each receive one dollar for every day they shall be engaged in the discharge of their duty; the surveyor, such reasonable compensation as shall be agreed upon between the parties; and the clerk of the county commissioners, who is hereby required to keep a record of the order and report, shall be entitled to receive for every order made and certified under his seal of office, fifty cents; for recording the report, endorsing the confirmation thereon, and filing the same on record, twenty-five cents.

Ibid. sec. 95. 1858, ch. 271, sec. 15

66. If any commissioner appointed in any order, original or of review, shall die, or remove from the county, or be otherwise
