

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 28, sec. 26. 1853, ch. 220, sec. 6.

97. If no objection be made to the return of the examiners at the meeting of the county commissioners next succeeding the meeting at which said return shall be made, the county commissioners may proceed to pass judgment thereon, and affirm or reject the same, or order it to be amended, in their discretion, or may continue over the proceedings to their next meeting, and so on from time to time, so long as they may think proper.

Ibid. sec. 27. 1853, ch. 220, sec. 12.

98. The examiners shall be entitled to a compensation for their services and attendance not exceeding two dollars a day, to be ascertained by the county commissioners, which, with all charges arising from the survey or attendance of witnesses or other expenses, shall, in the discretion of the county commissioners, be paid by the petitioners, or levied, collected and paid by the county, or apportioned between the petitioners and the county, as heretofore directed.

Ibid. sec. 28. 1853, ch. 220, sec. 10.

99. In all cases where the county commissioners shall adjudge that a road be opened or altered, they shall, at the usual time for levying taxes, levy on the assessable property of the county a sum sufficient to open or alter said road, and also sufficient to pay the damages awarded, if it shall have been adjudged that the damages be paid by the county, or such proportion of the said sums as shall have been adjudged to be paid by the county; and it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to open or alter the road as soon as it can conveniently be done.

Private Roads.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 28, sec. 29. 1834, ch. 253, sec. 1.

100. Any owner of any lands in this State has the right to a road and way to and from his land to places of public worship and mills, market towns, public ferries and court houses, and may obtain a private road or way by application to the county commissioners.
