6. Any judge in the recess of his court may order his clerk to enter a judgment by confession, with the assent of the parties or their attorneys, in writing, which shall be filed with the order of the judge; and a judgment so entered shall, from the date of its entry by the clerk, have the same effect as if entered during the session of the court.

Appointment of Assistant Counsel.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 29, sec. 7. 1856, ch. 19, sec. 1. 1886, ch. 46.

7. The circuit courts for the several counties, and the criminal court of Baltimore, may appoint assistant counsel for the State, to aid in the trial of criminal or other State cases in said courts, whenever, in the judgment of the court in which any such case is pending, public interest requires it; and the said courts may likewise appoint counsel to defend any person in the trial of any criminal case in said courts, whenever, in the judgment of the court in which any such case is pending, a just regard for the rights of the accused requires it.

Ibid. sec. 8. 1856, ch. 19, sec. 2. 1886, ch. 46.

8. The county commissioners of the several counties, and the mayor and city council of Baltimore, shall levy and pay for the services rendered by any person appointed by the court to assist in the prosecution or defence of any case; provided, the amount paid for such services in any one case shall not exceed one
