Appeals from Justices of the Peace.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 5, sec. 50. 1852, ch. 239, sec. 3. 1872, ch. 182.

83. Any party aggrieved thereby may appeal from any judgment of a justice of the peace to the circuit court for the county, or the Baltimore city court, as the case may be, at any time within sixty days from the rendition of such judgment; and the court to which such appeal is taken shall hear the case de novo and determine the same according to law, and the equity and right of the matter; and this section shall be construed to include all actions of debt for the collection of fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by any law of the State, and which are made recoverable before a justice of the peace, in which a right of appeal may not be given by the law imposing the same.
