

workshop, court-house, school-house, mill-house, church, or any building occupied in part or in whole by any of the public, municipal or private corporations of this State, or upon any vessel, or upon any yard where lumber, coal or any sort of goods and chattels are deposited or kept for the purpose of trade, with the intent maliciously to injure or destroy any of the buildings aforesaid, or any part thereof, or any furniture, property or effects therein being found, or any property or effects deposited or kept in or upon any vessel or yard, or with the intent to slay, kill, maim or tar and feather any person being in or upon any of the premises aforesaid, upon conviction thereof he shall be sentenced to the penitentiary of this State for not less than two years nor more than twenty years.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 30, sec. 41. 1864, ch. 247. 1867, ch. 153. 1868, ch. 56.

52. Any person who shall enter upon the land of any other person or body corporate or politic in this State, and shall wilfully or maliciously injure or destroy any dwelling-house, out-house, stable, barn, warehouse, store-house, banking-house, factory, workshop, court-house, school-house, church, mill-house, or take and carry away any growing tree, or cut down any tree, or destroy a vine, plant, shrubbery, root, vegetable, fruit or grain, or any fencing, cordwood, or hoop-poles, shall, on conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and after presentment and indictment by a grand jury, and conviction, be fined not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the city or county jail for not less than one month nor more than two months, or be both fined and imprisoned as aforesaid, in the discretion of the court.

53. If any person unlawfully and maliciously shall disfigure, cut, mutilate, injure or damage any church, house of worship, its pews, seats, walls, windows, shutters, trees, tombstones, fencing, inclosures, or other property in or belonging thereto, or any parsonage, its furniture, trees, fencing or inclosures, near and belonging to the same, he shall, on conviction before a justice of the peace or the circuit court for the county or criminal court of Baltimore, where the said property may be situated, be deemed
