

this State, who shall neglect any of the requirements of the preceding section, or do or permit to be done in the factory, manufacturing establishment or work-shop conducted or managed by him, her, them or it, any act contrary to the provisions of said section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof in a court of competent jurisdiction, be fined one hundred and fifty dollars for each offence so committed.

Heating Steam Passenger Cars.

1888, ch. 407.

150. It shall not be lawful for any steam railroad doing business in the State after the 1st day of May, 1890, to heat its passenger cars by any stove or furnace kept inside of the car, or suspended therefrom, except that it may be lawful in case of accident or other emergency to temporarily use such stove or furnace with necessary fuel; provided, that in cars which have been equipped with apparatus to heat by steam, hot water or hot air from the locomotive, or from a special car, the present stove may be retained to be used only when the car is standing still; and provided, also, that this section shall not prevent the use of stoves for cooking purposes in dining-room cars.

Ibid.

151. Any person or corporation violating any of the provisions of the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a penalty of one thousand dollars, and to the further penalty of one hundred dollars for each and every day during which such violation shall continue.

Importing Convicts.

P. G. L., (1860,) art 30, sec. 69. 1809, ch. 138, sec. 7.

152. Every commanding officer, captain or master of any vessel who shall be convicted of wilfully importing in such vessel into this State from any foreign country and not any part of the United States, any felon or convict, shall be sentenced to the penitentiary for not less than eighteen months nor more than five years.
