

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 30, sec. 111. 1860, ch. 388, sec. 3.

176. If any person shall keep any house, office or other place for the purpose of selling or bartering any lottery ticket, policy, certificate or any other thing by which the vendor or other person promises or guarantees that any particular number, character, ticket or certificate, shall in any event, or on the happening of any contingency in the nature of a lottery, entitle the purchaser or holder to receive money, property or evidence of debt, he shall be subject to a penalty of one thousand dollars for each offence, to be recovered either by indictment or by action of debt in the name of the State, one-half of which shall go to the informer and the other half shall be for the use of the common schools in the counties and the city of Baltimore, respectively.

Ibid. sec. 112. 1860, ch. 388, sec. 4.

177. The owner of any house or office who shall permit the same to be used as a place for selling lottery tickets, or any of the things in the nature thereof mentioned in the preceding section, shall be subject to a penalty of one thousand dollars, to be recovered and disposed of as mentioned in the preceding section; and any person who shall know that his house or office is used for such purpose shall be considered as permitting the same.

Ibid. sec. 113. 1860, ch. 388, sec. 5.

178. If any person shall bring into this State any lottery ticket, policy, certificate, or anything by which the vendor or other person promises or guarantees that any particular number, character, ticket or certificate, shall in any event, or on the happening of any contingency in the nature of a lottery, entitle the purchaser or holder to receive money, property or evidence of debt, for the purpose of sale or disposing of the same in any other manner, he shall be subject to a penalty of one thousand dollars, to be recovered by action of debt or indictment, in the name of the State; one-half to the informer and the other half shall be for the use of the common schools in the counties and city of Baltimore, respectively.

Ibid. sec. 114. 1860, ch. 388, sec. 6.

179. If any person shall, by printing, writing, or in any other way, publish an account of any lottery, stating when or where
