

ship or corporation be conducted within the limits of said city, or if in any one of the counties of the State, then before the clerk of the circuit court therefor, a description of such boxes or bottles, founts, jugs or any other vessel, and the name or names of the users and owners of the same; and there shall be published by the owners, if doing business in the city of Baltimore, a descriptive notice thereof twice a week for two successive weeks in some daily newspaper published in said city, or if in the counties, such notice in some paper published in said county, once a week for two successive weeks.

1882, ch 491, sec. 2.

202. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the superior court of Baltimore city, and the clerks of the circuit courts for the various counties of the State, to keep a separate book of record, in which shall be entered all such names, marks or designations as are particularly named and referred to in the preceding section, as well as a copy of the newspaper advertisement certified to by the publishers of the newspaper or papers in which said advertisement may have appeared; and the clerks shall charge and be paid the usual fees of recording, to be accounted for by them as in the case of other record fees; and a certified copy of the name or names of the person or persons, partnership or corporate bodies, marks of ownership stamped and engraved as contemplated in the preceding section, together with a copy of the advertisement appearing in the newspaper, shall be evidence of title when certified to under the hand of said clerk, with the seal of his office attached.

Ibid. sec. 3.

203. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, partnerships or corporate bodies, without the written consent of the owner or owners thereof, to trade or traffic in, or to wilfully mar or erase the name or names, mark or marks, thereon, or to break, destroy or otherwise injure any such box or boxes, bottle or bottles, jug or jugs, fount or founts, so marked or stamped, description of which shall have been filed and published as provided in the two preceding sections, or to fill the same with mineral water, porter or any other beverage whatsoever, for the purpose of sale or traffic; and any person or persons who shall violate the provisions of this