

the said justice of the peace shall issue his search warrant and cause the premises designated to be searched as in other cases where search warrants are issued as is now provided by law; and in case any such keg, jug, fount, bottle or box duly marked or stamped and recorded as aforesaid shall be found in, upon and about the premises so designated, the officer executing such search warrant shall thereupon arrest the person or persons named in such search warrant, and bring him, her or them before the justice of the peace who issued such warrant, who shall, thereupon, hear and determine such case; and if the accused is found guilty, he, she or they shall be fined, as provided in section 203.

1882, ch. 491, sec. 6.

206. In all cases where any one of the five preceding sections shall have been violated, it shall be the duty of any justice of the peace in whose jurisdiction the offence has been committed to issue his warrant on the oath, in writing, of any agent, owner or owners, and to cause such person or persons to be brought before him for trial; and should either party feel aggrieved at the judgment so rendered, then an appeal may be had to the circuit court for the county where the offence has been committed, or to the criminal court of Baltimore city, as the case may be.

Ibid. sec. 7

207. All costs incurred in the enforcement of the provisions of this article, shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as in criminal cases, and be accounted for in the same manner as fines in cases of assault and battery are now by law disposed of.

Minors—Care and Protection of.

208. Every agent, officer or representative of any institution, society or body, incorporated under the laws of this State for the care, custody or protection of children or minors having in his possession, custody or personal charge, any minor or person under twenty-one years of age, for any purpose connected with the objects of such institution, society or body, shall be entitled to all the privileges and authority of a conservator of the peace; and any person, whether under the claim or color of authority over
