

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 30, sec 165. 1824, ch. 53, sec. 2 1827, ch. 29, sec. 1.

236. If any person shall commit an offence against the provisions of the preceding section, he shall, in addition to the penalties therein mentioned, forfeit all such spirituous or fermented liquors and other articles of traffic, and all the chests and other things containing the same, belonging to and in the possession of the person so offending, together with such booth, stall, tent, carriage, boat, vessel, vehicle or other contrivance or thing prepared and used in violation of said section. And it shall be the duty of any sheriff, deputy sheriff or constable, if he sees any person violating the preceding section, to arrest the offender and carry him before a justice of the peace. The sheriff, deputy sheriff or constable, when he arrests the offender, shall seize the property hereby declared to be forfeited, or shall seize the same on a warrant against the offender, if such offender cannot be found; and the justice of the peace before whom such offender is convicted, or before whom the warrant is returned that the offender cannot be found, shall enter judgment of condemnation against such property, and issue a fiery facias for the sale thereof; provided, the person who has been returned not found, and whose property has been condemned in his absence, may appear at any time before the sale of the property and have the case tried as if he had appeared at the return of the warrant.

Ibid. sec. 166. 1824, ch. 53, sec. 3.

237. The provisions of the two preceding sections shall not apply to any licensed tavern-keeper, merchant, shop-keeper, farmer or other person, in the usual and lawful transaction of his ordinary business in the usual place of transacting such business, or to any person having permission in writing from the supervisor of such meeting, to sell such articles as may be named in such permission.

Ibid. sec 167. 1824, ch. 53, sec. 5. 1827, ch. 29, sec. 2. 1849, ch. 195.
1882, ch 116.

238. Whosoever shall wilfully interrupt or disturb any religious congregation, society or meeting, or person attending such congregation, society or meeting, by blowing horns, exploding firearms, horse-racing, noisy, riotous or disorderly conduct or con-
