

or other property, either belonging to or used or employed upon any railroad within this State; or if any person or persons shall attempt or conspire with others to destroy any dam, lock, abutment, towing-path, waste-weir, or feeder of any canal, or any boat, vessel or other property belonging to or used or employed thereon within this State, every person so offending, upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding three years, nor less than one year, or fined in a sum not more than two thousand nor less than five hundred dollars, in the discretion of the court.

1862, ch. 235.

270. If any person or persons shall wilfully attempt or conspire to betray, yield or deliver to any person or persons in rebellion against the government of this State, or to their emissaries, aiders or abettors, any ship, vessel or steamboat within this State, every person so offending shall, upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding three years nor less than one year, or fined in a sum not more than two thousand nor less than five hundred dollars, in the discretion of the court.

Ibid.

271. If any person, within this State, shall seduce, entice or persuade any other person to commit any one of the offences prohibited by sections 264 to 270, inclusive, and such offence be committed, the said person who so seduced, enticed or persuaded shall, on conviction, be sentenced to suffer such punishment as the person committing said offence would be liable to suffer as a punishment for the crime so committed by him.

Ibid.

272. If any person within this State shall attempt to seduce, entice or persuade any other person to commit any of the offences prohibited by said sections, though such offence has not been committed, and shall be convicted thereof, he shall be sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for not less than two years nor more than four years, or to a fine of not less than five hundred nor more than two thousand dollars, in the discretion of the court.
