

be filled for the remainder of the year by such person as the board of managers for the time being, or a majority of them, shall appoint, except the two appointed by the governor, in which case the governor shall fill the vacancy.

1870, ch. 392, sec. 6.

335. If the said annual election and appointment shall not take place at the times appointed for that purpose, the said corporation shall not therefor be dissolved, but the members of said board shall continue in office until a new election and appointment shall be had.

Ibid. sec. 7.

336. Five of said managers shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Ibid sec 8.

337. The said managers shall appoint from their own body a president, a secretary and treasurer, and prescribe the duties of each.

Ibid. sec. 9.

338. They may from time to time make such by-laws, ordinances and regulations relative to the management, government, instruction, discipline, employment and disposition of the minors in the house of reformation, not contrary to law, as they may deem proper, and may appoint such officers, agents, and servants as they may deem necessary to transact the business of the said corporation, and may designate their duties.

Ibid. sec. 10.

339. They shall make a report to the general assembly at each regular session thereof of the number of minors received by them into the house of reformation, the disposition which shall be made of such minors, by instructing or employing them therein, or by binding them out as apprentices; the receipts and expenditures of said managers, and generally, all such facts and particulars as may tend to exhibit the effects, whether beneficial or otherwise, of the said association.
