

forfeit the sum of two hundred dollars, to be recovered and applied as directed in section 392.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 73, sec. 7. 1837, ch. 320, sec. 10. 1845, ch. 101, sec. 2.

395. The warden and the other officers, guards and superintendents employed in the penitentiary, before entering upon the discharge of their respective duties, shall execute bonds to the State, with security to be approved by the board of directors, and in no manner connected with the management of said penitentiary; the warden in the sum of ten thousand dollars, and the other officers, guards and superintendents in such penalty and with such security as the board of directors may deem proper, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties required of them, respectively, by the laws of this State, and the rules and regulations that may be adopted from time to time for the government of the said penitentiary; and the said bonds shall be filed in the executive department of the State, and a certified copy thereof, under the seal of the State, shall be evidence in actions on said bonds or any of them; and if any of the officers aforesaid shall neglect to execute bond as herein prescribed, or neglect to take the oath prescribed by the directors, within twenty days after notice of his or her appointment, another person shall be appointed in place of the said delinquent.

Ibid. sec. 8. , 1828, ch. 65. 1845, ch. 101, sec. 2.

396. The directors shall fix the amount of the salaries to be paid to the deputy warden, police and other officers, guards and superintendents employed in the penitentiary, shall define their respective duties, and take from them, respectively, the bond required by the preceding section.

Ibid. sec. 9. 1837, ch. 320, sec. 5. 1868, ch. 97. 1878, ch. 74.

397. The warden shall receive a salary at the rate of two thousand dollars per year, and shall be allowed subsistence, fuel, and the occupancy of such parts of the front buildings as a dwelling, as are not used for purposes of the penitentiary, and all necessary out-houses, yards and grounds not within the walls of the prison proper, but shall receive no other pay, emoluments or perquisites for his services.
