

P. G. L., (1860,) art 23, sec 21. 1852, ch. 151, sec. 4.

409. They shall, within thirty days after the end of each fiscal year of the institution, transmit to the comptroller of the State an accurate detailed statement of all its receipts and disbursements during the year immediately preceding, including the receipts from the treasury; and if there be any surplus in the receipts over the expenditures, they shall pay the same over to the treasurer of the State.

Ibid. sec. 22. 1852, ch. 151, sec. 5.

410. They shall, at the time of making their annual report to the governor, as required in the next succeeding section, transmit to that officer a statement similar to that required to be made to the comptroller; and the statements required to be made in this and the preceding sections, shall be duly sworn to by the warden and clerk of the penitentiary, before some justice of the peace of the city of Baltimore.

Ibid. sec. 23. 1837, ch. 320, sec. 15.

411. They shall make a report every year, in the month of December, to the governor, showing the expenses, profits, losses, receipts, disbursements, condition and progress of the said penitentiary, together with a statement of the number of prisoners, their age, sex, color, place of nativity, and conviction, offence, term of confinement, escapes, pardons, and discharges, accompanied by such remarks and suggestions as may appear necessary to the advancement of the interests of the establishment, and to possess the people of a general knowledge of its concerns; and the governor shall communicate said report to the legislature with such recommendations as he may think expedient.

Ibid. sec. 24. 1837, ch. 320, sec. 13.

412. The criminal court of Baltimore shall, at each term, charge the grand jury attending, to inquire into the conduct and management of the warden, assistant warden, and officers of the penitentiary, and make presentments of all offenses and omissions of the said warden, assistant warden, and officers, in and relating to the said penitentiary; and the said court shall, at the terms aforesaid, direct a number, not exceeding six of the said grand jurors, to visit and examine the said penitentiary.
