

P G L, (1860,) art. 73, sec. 42 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25.

431. The slops and offal of the prison shall be sold, or used in raising hogs or other stock, for the use of the house; and none of the officers shall be allowed to raise stock of any kind within the walls. The grounds within the prison walls may be cultivated for the use of the prison, under the direction of the warden, for the purpose of keeping down unhealthy exhalations from weeds, rubbish, et cetera; the warden may keep a horse and cow for his own use, to be attended by his own servants, and fed at his own expense. The walls and houses must be whitewashed at least three times a year.

Ibid. sec. 43. 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25.

432. The convicts shall have three meals a day, consisting in all of one and a quarter pounds of flour, three-quarters of a pound of beef, or half a pound of bacon, of good, coarse quality, one herring, one gill of molasses, one pint of potatoes or other vegetables, with soup, and a proper allowance of rye coffee, tea and salt; and the physician may vary the diet when necessary.

Ibid. sec. 44. 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25.

433. The cooking and refectory shall be regulated by the board of directors; but no prisoner shall receive anything but the prison allowance.

Directors.

P. G L., (1860,) art. 73, sec. 45. 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25.

434. The directors shall hold regular stated meetings once in each month, or by adjournment from time to time; and shall also meet when occasion may require, the warden or two directors giving notice thereof.

Ibid. sec. 46. 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25.

435. They shall keep minutes of their proceedings, and a majority shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

Ibid. sec. 47. 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25.

436. They shall direct the management of the concerns of the prison, and shall see that all the laws, rules and regulations in
