P G. L., (1860,) art. 73, sec. 81 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25.

470. He shall be answerable for the police and discipline of the institution, and shall report monthly to the board upon the conduct of the officers under his direction; and the board shall remove any officer for the slightest offence or omission in the discharge of his duty.

Ibid. sec. 82. 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25.

471. He must not permit any prisoners to be together at any time, without proper supervision of an officer.

Ibid. sec. 83. 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25.

472. He shall not encourage any espionage or tale-bearing among the convicts.

Ibid. sec. 84. 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25.

473. He shall govern the institution by the weight of its authorities, and the prisoners must be made to feel that the officers are entirely cognizant of all their improper designs, and prepared to counteract or prevent any effort on their part.

Ibid. sec. 85 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25.

474. He may punish to the extent of thirteen lashes and ten days' confinement on bread and water, and may authorize his deputies and under officers to give from one to five lashes for infractions of discipline, and he must present a record of punishments and offences to the monthly meetings of the board, that they may judge of the condition of the discipline, and he must particularly observe that corporal punishment is resorted to as little as possible.

Ibid. sec. 86 1837, ch. 320, sec. 25.

475. Neither the warden, nor any director, nor other person having any official relation with the prison, shall receive any reward, gift or promise, from any convict, or from any one in his behalf, under the penalty of not less than thirty nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered as other fines now are.
