

Representatives in Congress.

118 When to be held.

119. Vacancies, how to be filled.

Congressional Districts.

120. Six districts.

121. First; of what composed.122. Second; of what composed.123. Third; of what composed124. Fourth, of what composed.125. Fifth; of what composed.126. Sixth; of what composed.

127. Returns of elections for; how to be made by return judges.

Registration of Voters.

1882, ch. 22. 1882, ch. 135. 1884, ch. 271.

1. At each regular session of the general assembly, the governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appoint one capable person in each election district of every county in this State, who shall be a voter and resident of the district for which he shall be appointed, to be an officer of registration for the said election district; and whenever a new election district shall be created, the governor shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, a capable person, who shall be a voter and resident in such new district, to be an officer of registration in such district; and it shall be the duty of the said officer of registration for the new district, together with the officer or officers of registration of the district or districts out of which the said new district may be formed, to cause the voters living in such new district, and already registered therein, to be transferred from the books of the old district or districts to a new registration book to be provided for said new district; and the voters so transferred shall be stricken from the old books and noted as transferred to said new district.

1882, ch. 22, sec. 2. 1888, ch. 104. 1888, ch. 155, sec. 1.

2. It shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of elections in the city of Baltimore, not later than the fifteenth day of April in each year, to appoint three officers of registration for each of the precincts of the several wards in the city of Baltimore, two of whom shall always be selected from the two leading political parties of this State, one from each of said parties, and all of whom shall be legal voters residing in the precinct for which they are appointed, and shall be men of approved integrity and capacity, and none of whom shall hold office or employment under the government of the United States, or of the State of Mary-