

tration is or shall be divided into election precincts, he shall, at his sittings in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, and at his sittings in each year thereafter, sit at some place in each of said election precincts convenient to the residents thereof, on so many of the days designated by this section for his said respective sittings, as will suffice to afford an opportunity for ascertaining and registering the qualified voters in each of said election precincts; the sittings shall be held at such one place in his election district as may be convenient to the greater number of the residents thereof.

1882, ch. 22, sec. 12. 1888, ch. 104. 1888, ch. 155, sec. 5.

11. Said board of supervisors of elections in Baltimore city, shall give in each year a notice signed by them, of the respective sittings to be held in said year under the provisions of this article, and of the times and places at which such respective sittings shall take place; such notice shall be given five days before the first day of each sitting, by publication in six daily newspapers published in Baltimore city having the largest circulation in said city, one of which shall be in the German language, and one of which newspapers shall be of opposite political opinions to those held by the majority of the registers.

Ibid. sec. 13. 1888, ch. 155, sec. 5.

12. The several officers of registration appointed in each county shall give in each year a collective notice signed by them, of their said respective sittings to be held in said year under the provisions of this article, and of the places of sitting in each election district, and of the times at which each of said respective sittings shall take place; said notice shall be given by said officers of registration five days before the first day of their respective sittings, by publication in two newspapers published in said county, of opposite political opinions, having the largest respective circulation in said county, and by handbills set up in such public places in each election district or in the election precincts of each election district, if each election district be so divided, as each of said officers of registration shall select, in their respective districts; but if there should be no papers of opposite political opinions in any of the counties of this State as above specified,