Ryninger v. Keating, 60 Md. 334. Muncher v. State, 36 Md. 227.

1882, ch. 22, sec. 22.

21. If any resident of any election district or election precinct in this State, who may become qualified to vote in such election district or election precinct after the occurrence of an election therein, subsequent to the last appointed day of the last sitting of the officers of registration for such election district or election precinct, shall desire to be registered therein for the purpose of voting at a new or special election to be held therein before the next appointed sitting of the officers of registration for such election district or election precinct, or if any person shall think himself aggrieved by the refusal of the officers of registration of any election district or election precinct to register his name as a qualified voter in such election district or election precinct at any sitting appointed by law for the purpose of the registration of qualified voters in such election district or election precinct, or for the revision and correction of the list of qualified and registered voters in such election district or election precinct, or by the striking off his name or the name of any other registered voter from the registry of voters or list of qualified and registered voters of such election district or election precinct, or being duly registered in the proper registry of voters of such election district or election precinct, by the omission of his name from the poll-book or list of qualified and registered voters of such election district or election precinct, or by misspelling of his name in such registry of voters or list of qualified and registered voters, or by the registration of any person in such election district or election precinct who was not entitled to be registered therein, or by refusing to strike from the registry of voters or list of qualified voters the name of any person who has ceased to be a qualified voter in said district or precinct since he was registered, or by the placing upon the poll-book of such election district or election precinct any name not entered or improperly entered as a qualified voter in the registry of voters of such election district
