

1888, ch. 155, sec. 9.

34. In case any error should be found in any of the poll books delivered to the judges of election, in the name or address of any voter, as the same are set down upon the registration books, a copy from the registration books, duly certified by the clerk of the circuit court for the county, or the superior court of Baltimore city, as the case may be, shall be accepted by the judges of election as a conclusive correction of said error, and the voter presenting said certificate shall be entitled to vote thereon, notwithstanding such error on the poll books, precisely as if said error had not been made; and it shall be the duty of the said clerks, respectively, to issue said certificates free of charge to the parties applying therefor, and the cost thereof shall be paid to said clerk by the county commissioners, or the mayor and the city council of Baltimore, as the case may be; and it shall be the duty of the said clerk to keep his office open on the day of election from the hour of nine A. M. to the hour of five P. M., for the purpose of issuing such certificates to those voters who may apply for them.

Ibid. sec. 10.

35. In the year eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, and biennially thereafter, there shall be in the city of Baltimore, in the several precincts of the several wards thereof, an entire new general registration of the voters thereof. And for the purpose of making said new general registration, the registers of said several precincts, hereinbefore provided for, shall sit in their several and respective precincts in one or more places therein, as the convenience of the voters in their judgment may require, in the months of May, June, July, September and October, denominated the May, June, July, September and October sittings, as hereinbefore provided, for registration, revision and correction of the registration books of the several precincts of said several wards; and said new general registration shall be conducted in all respects under the rules and provisions as are already by this article prescribed for the registration of voters; and at such new general registration the register of their several precincts as aforesaid shall be entitled to receive the preceding registration books from the clerk of the superior court of Baltimore city for
