

1882, ch. 22, sec. 34.

37. If any officer of registration shall fraudulently register, or fraudulently permit to be registered, in any registry of voters, or in any list of qualified and registered voters, in his charge as officer of registration, any person who is not entitled to be registered therein as a qualified voter, or if any other person not authorized by the proper judges or judge shall inscribe the name of any person as a qualified and registered voter in any registry of voters, or in any list of qualified and registered voters; or if any officer of registration shall fraudulently refuse or omit to register, or shall fraudulently misspell in any registry of voters, or in any list of qualified and registered voters in his charge as an officer of registration, the name of any person entitled under the provisions of this article to have his name inscribed in such registry of voters or list of qualified and registered voters; or if any officer of registration shall fraudulently strike from any registry of voters or from any list of qualified and registered voters in his charge as an officer of registration, the name of any qualified and registered voter entitled to remain inscribed upon such registry of voters or list of qualified and registered voters; or if any person not authorized by the proper order of the judges or judge shall fraudulently strike from any registry of voters or list of qualified and registered voters, the name of any person therein inscribed as a qualified and registered voter; or if any officer of registration shall enter the name of any person as a qualified voter in any registry of voters in his charge as an officer of registration, at any time except on a day appointed by this article for one of his public sittings as an officer of registration, and except between the hours appointed for such public sitting; or if any officer of registration shall do any act which is by this article forbidden to be by him done, or shall omit to do any act which is by this article required to be by him done, such officer of registration, whether he be a principal or assistant officer, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof by a competent court, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding three years, or by both fine and imprisonment as aforesaid.
