

P. G. L., (1860,) art 41, sec 2. 1854, ch. 310 1868, ch 421. 1876, ch 252.
1878, ch. 276. 1880, ch. 260

2. No person shall, from the tenth day of June to the first day of October in each year, fish with hauling seine or drag-net of any kind, within the Chesapeake bay, or any of its tributaries lying northward of the following line, viz: Beginning at Still pond, in Kent county, and drawn westward to Lego's point, in Harford county.

1880, ch 260.

3. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of the preceding section, upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of the county in which said section has been violated, shall pay a fine of fifty dollars, one-half of which shall go to the informer; and any hauling seine or hauling seines, drag-net or drag-nets, and the boat or boats and material used in fishing the same are hereby declared to be forfeited; and the justice before whom said conviction and condemnation shall be had, is authorized and directed to have said fishing apparatus sold by the sheriff or constable making said arrest, to the highest bidder, and the proceeds, together with half the fine, after deducting the cost, shall be paid to the county commissioners of the county in which said offence shall be committed, for the use of the school fund of said county.

Ibid.

4. Any person, on conviction, failing to pay the fine as prescribed in the preceding section, shall be imprisoned in the county jail of the county in which said offence shall be committed; provided, however, that any one so offending shall, upon conviction before any justice of the peace of the county in which said offence shall be committed, have the right of appeal to the circuit court for the county in which said offence shall be committed, under the same restrictions that govern appeals from the decisions of justices of the peace.

P. G L., (1860,) art 41, sec 3. 1843, ch. 275, sec 1.

5. No person shall place in the head waters of the Chesapeake bay, or in the Sassafraz, Elk, Bohemia, North East or Susquehanna rivers, or in any of their tributaries, any stakes, piles or
