

ARTICLE XLI.

GOVERNOR.

- | | |
|---|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Custody of the great seal, when to be used; bills to be sealed with, how bills to be approved 2. Signature to accompany sealing of all public documents. 3. Signing and sealing patents. 4. May seal certified copies of laws and resolutions. 5. To issue death warrants 6. May commute sentence of death. 7. Arrest and trial of person pardoned on condition of leaving the State, for returning to State 8. May remit forfeited recognizances, when. 9. Not the part belonging to an informer. 10. Nolle prosequi, terms of granting. 11. May remit fine imposed by court martial. 12. May summon witnesses in cases of complaint against civil or military officers, whom he may remove or suspend. | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 13. Party complained against to have notice of hearing 14. Costs of hearing, how to be paid. 15. Returns of elections for presidential electors 16. Maryland soldiers in Mexican war; duplicates of discharge to 17. May quarantine vessels from infected places. 18. To appoint superintendent and sundry other officials in Annapolis to take care of public buildings and grounds. 19. Duties of superintendent of public buildings and grounds. 20. Superintendent to prepare a system of rules. 21. Employees to obey orders of superintendent 22. Oath and bond of superintendent. 23. May direct removal of insane convict from penitentiary to Maryland hospital. |
|---|---|

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 43, sec. 1. 1853, ch. 131, sec. 1. 1894, ch. 78.

1. The great seal of the State of Maryland shall be in the custody of the secretary of the State, but the governor shall have the control and use thereof whenever necessary for any purpose provided for by the constitution and laws, or when needed to authenticate communications between this State and the United States, the States and territories thereof, and foreign States; in all which cases the great seal shall be used; and the secretary of the senate, and the chief clerk of the house of delegates, respectively, shall have unrestricted access to and use of the great seal, for the purpose of affixing the same to bills which shall have passed the general assembly, as required by the constitution, pre-