

of any person so suffering, so exposes such sufferer, or gives, lends, sells, transmits or exposes, without previous thorough disinfection, any bedding, clothing, rags, or other things which have been exposed to infection from any such disorder, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding twelve months, or both, in the discretion of the circuit court for the county or criminal court of Baltimore.

1882, ch. 155, sec. 5.

19. Any person, parent or guardian or other party who carelessly carries about children or others affected with infectious diseases, or who knowingly or wilfully introduces infectious persons into other persons' houses, or permits children under his or her care to attend any school, theatre, church or any public place where they will be brought in contact with others, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars for each and every such offence.

Ibid. sec. 6.

20. Every owner or driver of a public conveyance shall immediately provide for the disinfection of such conveyance, in a manner to be approved by the local health authority, after it has conveyed any one suffering from a dangerous infectious disorder, or the corpse of any one who has died from any such disorder; and if he fails to do so, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars; but no such owner or driver shall be required to convey any person so suffering until he has been paid a sum sufficient to cover any loss or expense incurred by him in carrying into effect the provisions of this section.

Ibid. sec. 7.

21. Any person who knowingly lets for hire any house, room or part of a house in which any person has been suffering from any dangerous infectious disorder, without having such house, room or part of a house and all articles therein liable to retain infection, disinfected to the satisfaction of a qualified medical practitioner, as testified by a certificate signed by him, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars; and any person letting for hire or showing, for the purpose of letting for hire, any house or part of a house or room, who, being
