

certificates for like causes; no such certificate shall be refused to any such person because he or she may belong to a different recognized school of medicine from any member of said board.

1888, ch 429, sec. 8.

46. Any person practising medicine in this State without complying with the provisions of this sub-title of this article, or who shall advertise himself to the public as skilled in the treatment of any particular disease or injury without first having secured and recorded the certificate of the State board of health, or who shall, by writing, printing, or any other method, publicly profess to cure or treat diseases, injury or deformity by any drug, nostrum, manipulation or other expedient, without having complied with the provisions of this sub-title of this article, or who shall represent himself as being authorized to practise medicine or surgery in this State, when in fact he is not so authorized, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than three months nor more than twelve months, or be both fined and imprisoned at the discretion of the court.

Ibid. sec. 9.

47. Any person filing or attempting to file as his own the diploma or certificate of another, or a forged diploma or forged affidavit of identification, shall be deemed guilty of the crime of forgery, and on being convicted thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary or house of correction, at the discretion of the court, for not less than two years, or by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or both, in the discretion of the court.