P. G. L., (1860,) art 45, sec. 2. 1872, ch. 270.

2. The property acquired or owned, according to the provisions of the preceding section, by a married woman, she shall hold for her separate use, with power of devising the same, as fully as if she were a feme sole; or she may convey the same by a joint deed with her husband; or where the husband is a lunatic or insane, and has been so found upon inquisition, and said finding remains unreversed and in force, she may convey the same as fully as if she were a feme sole, by her separate deed, whether the same be absolute or by way of mortgage; provided, that if
