

Tobacco.

1872, ch. 36, sec. 1 1878, ch. 386.

9. The governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall biennially appoint five inspectors of tobacco, one for each tobacco warehouse in the city of Baltimore.

Moore v. State, 47 Md. 483.

1872, ch. 36, sec. 2.

10. The said inspectors so appointed shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, be required to give bond in the sum of thirty thousand dollars each, satisfactory to the treasurer of the State, for punctual and full returns at the end of each quarter, and for the faithful performance of all the duties imposed upon them by law; and the said bonds shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the superior court of Baltimore city.

Ibid. sec. 3.

11. Any inspector of tobacco who is now, or may hereafter be appointed by the governor, to any of the warehouses in the city of Baltimore, who shall have properly bonded, and duly qualified according to law, shall take charge of all the tobacco, books, furniture, appurtenances and effects, found in the warehouse, to which he may be appointed, and shall receipt to his predecessor for the same.

Ibid. sec. 4.

12. No inspector, or other person appointed or employed in any of the tobacco warehouses in the city of Baltimore, shall be engaged in the purchase or sale of tobacco, (except of their own growth,) nor shall it be lawful for any person thus appointed or employed in the warehouses, to receive any gift or emolument whatever, either directly or indirectly, for any favor or service rendered, other than his regular salary or wages. Any person convicted of violating this section shall be at once dismissed from office or service.

Ibid. sec. 5. 1878, ch. 386, sec 5.

13. Each inspector shall be entitled to appoint a chief clerk, a shipping clerk, a receiving clerk and a weighing clerk, and such
