

every hogshead of tobacco inspected by him, the State where grown, the consignee of the same, the name of the vessel by which shipped out, and the name of the party shipping the same; and for every hogshead so inspected by him, he shall issue his certificate or note, stating in such certificate or note, the name or initials of the owner, the number of the hogshead, the State where grown, the date of the inspection, and the gross, tare and net weight of the hogshead; and he shall make no delivery of any hogshead of inspected tobacco from his warehouse, except upon surrender of such certificate or note, corresponding with the number of the hogshead.

Ibid. sec. 16.

30. If any certificate or note be lost or mislaid or destroyed, the person entitled to receive the tobacco, by virtue of such note or certificate, may make oath before a justice of the peace to the effect of said note being lost, and shall take a certificate to that effect from such justice of the peace to the inspector, and deposit the same with him; then the inspector may deliver to such person a new note or certificate, with marks, numbers, weights and date corresponding with the former note, and shall thereby be discharged from all actions and demands on account of such former note or certificate.

Ibid. sec. 17.

31. No person shall be entitled to receive a new note or certificate in lieu of any note or certificate lost or mislaid, unless he shall notify the inspector at whose house it was issued, within twenty days after such note or certificate is first discovered to be lost or mislaid.

Ibid. sec. 18.

32. All tobacco inspected in any of the warehouses, which may be condemned or stayed, shall be carefully cased up and weighed, and the gross weight and tare be entered upon a book kept for that purpose, together with the number of breaks in such hogshead as may be stayed, also the cause, whether for false packing, trash, order or wet.

Ibid. sec. 19.

33. All tobacco thus stayed, shall, with all convenient dispatch, be shaken out, reconditioned and packed, under the supervision
