

of the inspector, and re-weighed and entered upon the inspection books, as all other tobacco.

1872, ch. 36, sec. 20. 1872, ch. 228, sec. 20.

34. The several inspectors having charge of the tobacco warehouses in the city of Baltimore, shall charge for reconditioning and re-packing all stayed tobacco the following prices: for one or two breaks, one dollar; for full stay, two dollars, to be paid by the owner or his agents; and for re-drawing hogsheads of Maryland and Ohio tobacco, fifty cents, and for re-drawing all other kinds, one dollar for each hogshead re-drawn, to be paid by the owner or his agent; the charge of outage shall be two dollars for every hogshead not exceeding eleven hundred pounds, and twelve and a half cents additional on every hundred pounds over eleven hundred pounds, to be paid by the shipper of the tobacco or his agent.

35. The owner of any tobacco that may be stayed or condemned, shall have the privilege of removing the same from the warehouse free of all costs or charges whatever, either for outage, cooperage or storage; provided, however, that it shall not be lawful to remove any stayed tobacco from one warehouse to another, except as all other tobacco is removed.

Ibid. sec. 22.

36. All tobacco delivered at any of the warehouses in the city of Baltimore for inspection, in such condition as to require cooperage, shall be properly coopered and taken care of, and the owner or his agent charged for the same not less than twenty-five cents or more than fifty cents for each hogshead thus coopered.

Ibid. sec. 23.

37. All scrap tobacco, accruing in any of the warehouses in the city of Baltimore, shall be sold by the inspector to the best advantage, for the benefit of the tobacco fund, and the proceeds accounted for with all other receipts in returns to the comptroller.

Ibid. sec. 24.

38. Each inspector shall, in the month of April, annually, cause to be inserted in some one of the Baltimore newspapers, once each
